

Dear Friends,

I hope this note finds all of you well and enjoying your day in the Lord.

These are challenging times! None of us have walked through a pandemic before BUT God has. None of us have had to stay home for an unknown amount of time BUT God is still with all of us. None of us know exactly when this crisis will end BUT God knows. None of us know all the details pertaining to all that is surrounding us BUT God does!

Our God is the One who walks on water in the midst of the storm. In the midst of a pandemic, crisis, challenging time, God walks on the water. Our God doesn't take the easy path, walking on water on a clear, calm, sunny day, no our God walks on water during the storm. While the disciples are scared, crying out in fear, and thinking they are going to die, Our God comes walking to them on the water. Amongst the waves! Amongst the rain! Amongst the wind! Amongst the uncertainty, fear, and unknown Our God comes walking on the water. Do you see Jesus out there? I promise you Jesus is out there walking on the rough waters of this pandemic. As God comes walking on the water during the storm towards us, Jesus says "Come" (Matthew 14.29).

The statement "come" is a statement of faith, a statement of assurance, a statement of trust. "Come" is an invitation to get closer to Jesus. How are you getting closer to Jesus even in the midst of this storm? This Sunday while we worship we will be focusing on the invitation to 'come'.

This Sunday we will be worshipping together at 10 am. While we will be in different rooms and different places we will continue to join together in praise. "For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them" (Matthew 18.20). I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday morning. Within this 'communicator' are invitations for how you can join us on Sunday morning. Tomorrow (Saturday, March 21) you will receive another email which will again share how you can join us for worship at 10 am on Sunday and it will also include the order of worship (including the words for the songs which we will be singing together).

Do you see Jesus out here walking on the water? I promise you, He is calling to you, "Come."

Peace and God's blessings
