

“Greetings, “Do not be afraid” (Matthew 28.9-10).

“Fear is a liar” (Zach Williams). Fear can so easily control us, limit us, and try to redefine us. Why do we give fear such power in our lives? Our God, Jesus Christ, the one who defeated death and left the tomb empty said that early Easter morning and still today to His disciples ‘do not be afraid.’ Yet we still are filled with fear. As we look out our windows today, there are many things that we could fear: the virus, the economy, our health, our jobs, and much more. I believe, Jesus still says ‘Fear Not.’ I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday at 10 am while we explore the depth of the reality that we need not fear! Be safe.

Peace and God’s blessings,

*In Christ
