

I wonder, what are you talking about now? When you call your family, when you video chat with your friends, what are you talking about? It is probably safe to guess that you are discussing 'social distancing,' COVID 19, and your recent trip to the grocery store. This is what is on all of our minds. I imagine that as Jesus walks through us during this storm that the same question He asked the disciples on the Emmaus road, He is also asking us today, 'what are you concerned about.' Luke 24.17. While the exact context is different for those disciples than our own, Jesus' answer would still be the same . . .turn to God! I look forward to worshiping with you this Sunday at 10 am.

Peace and God's blessings,
