“Didn’t I tell you?” the king of Israel exclaimed to Jehoshaphat. “He never prophesies anything but trouble for me.” (1st Kings 22.18)

Thomas Jefferson is attributed to saying 'honesty is the best policy.' While it might be the best policy, it is not the easiest policy. It can be hard to tell the truth. It gets harder to tell the truth when the receiver of the truth doesn't want to hear it and we know we will receive the full force of their displeasure.

Micaiah, a prophet of God, had that responsibility: telling the truth when the receiver didn't want to hear it. He was slapped, ridiculed, called a liar, and put in jail. All for speaking the truth. Micaiah experienced first hand the fact that Jesus made 'the truth will set you free' (John 8.32). As Christ's followers the truth sets us free! To walk in the truth is to walk in life. Let us be people who speak and live the truth. I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday at 10 am. Peace and God's blessings.
