With the Trinity we are NEVER Abandoned, Powerless, or Unloved!

Unfortunately, we have all had those moments when we have felt unloved. It is a dark cold moment. It is my hope for you that you have also experienced moments of being truly loved. Wrapped up in a big bear hug kind of love! The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we are never unloved, we are always loved. Loving God is following God's teachings and then the flood gate of love opens even wider. embrace the true deep love God has so you. You are never unloved. I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
