

The Lord had said to Abram, “Go from your country, your people and your father’s household to the land I will show you” (Genesis 12.1).

Mountains often seem to be obstacles in our way. Obstacles that interfere with OUR plans. Obstacles that it appears we cannot go around, through, over, or under. Mountains can seem to be unpassable. These mountains, obstacles in life, can be items in our path or an emptiness of direction or clarity. For example, Abraham was told to “Go” without a specific destination but an invitation to a journey, with God! Instead of being obstacles, could these mountains be invitations to a journey with our God? I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday.
