But because the midwives feared God, they refused to obey the king's orders. They allowed the boys to live, too. (Exodus 1.17)

Parents tell their children, 'do the right thing even when no one is watching.' Our Scripture passage this Sunday (Exodus 1.15-21) shares that it is even harder to do the right thing when our boss, friends, or in this case Pharaoh is directing us to do the wrong thing. Doing the right thing is always the right thing to do but is not always the easiest or safest thing to do. Doing the right thing, even in defiance of Pharaoh was Sheprah and Puah's superpower. What is your superpower? I look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday at 10 am.
