

Calling all families!

Are you looking for a way to share your many blessings?....would you consider participating in a family activity that is community focused, one where your family can learn the importance of giving back and helping those in the community who are less fortunate?

Family Promise of Monmouth County is proud to present our 1st annual Cardboard Box City event on Friday, September 24, 2010. Event participants will spend the night in boxes at Monmouth Church of Christ in Tinton Falls to raise money and awareness for Family Promise, a support agency in Monmouth County that keeps homeless families together while providing them with services to assist them back into homes of their own.

Did you know that on any given day in Monmouth County there are 242 children who are homeless? A recent report by the National Center on Family Homelessness estimates that New Jersey is home to 7,557 homeless children.

Family Promise is a communitywide program that provides transitional shelter and comprehensive assistance for families in Monmouth County in a manner that offers hope, preserves dignity and promotes self-sufficiency. Family Promise of Monmouth County opened its doors in 2001, and has since served more than 130 families.

For more information on how you and your family can participate, please visit www.familypromisemc.org or call the Family Promise office at (732) 495-1050.